Policy of XIV. Kerekes Napok

I. Entering to the event

1./ Visitors are admitted to the Event at the times and according to the conditions specified on their ticket. With entering into the Event Visitor accept the policy of XIII. Kerekes Napok, and takes responsibility. With buying a ticket Visitor receives a wristband, and between 21:00 03rd April, 2019 and 04:00 4th April, 2019 can visit the Event, after that Visitor must leave the place.

2./ Visitors are required to wear their wristbands for the duration of their validity. Event organisers may inspect wristbands at the entrance, at the exit and throughout the entire area of the Event. Visitors with invalid wristbands are required to leave the Event venue.

Wristbands are non-transferable. As a general rule, wristbands are to be worn on the wrist for them to be valid; if necessary, however, your wristband may be worn on another limb provided that the wristband cannot be removed without damaging it. Damaged wristbands – those re-sealed or severed, whose fastener has been opened, whose diameter exceeds that of the wearer’s fist or which have been tampered with in any way, etc. – are invalid.

3./ In order to ensure the safety of the Event, the organizers reserves the right to restrict the types of items and devices which may be brought inside the venue. Accordingly, bringing the following in particular to the Event is prohibited: narcotics, pyrotechnic devices, glass objects, umbrellas, objects or tools containing explosive, poisonous or flammable materials, firearms, knives with a blade longer than 8 cm, butterfly knives, switchblades, gas sprays, expandable batons, metal chains over 50 cm in length, throwing stars, slingshots and other items posing a special threat to public safety as defined in relevant laws and regulations (currently: Government Decree No. 175/2003 of 28 October 2003). With these items Visitor can’t entrance into the Event.

4./ Visitors are prohibited from bringing alcoholic beverages into the Event. By the order of the Organizers, the people who take care of the security can ask the Visitors to leave their alcoholic beverages outside of the Event. Visitors are prohibited from bringing retail quantities of food or tobacco products to the Event. With regard to food products, “retail quantity” is an amount exceeding the quantity Visitors would reasonably require to satisfy their own personal needs. With regard to tobacco products, “retail quantity” exceeds 2 cartons (20 boxes) of cigarettes, 10 boxes of cigarillos and 10 cigars (regardless of size).

5./ Persons under the age of 18 (eighteen) are not allowed to visit the event.
6./ In addition to service dogs as defined by law, guide dogs and police dogs, pets are not allowed to bring to the event.

To avoid potential problems, Organizers recommends that Visitors choosing to visit the Event with a service dog – as defined by Ministry of Social Affairs and Labour Decree No. 27/2009 of 3 December 2009 – meet the following conditions. The use of a muzzle is not required for guide dogs and service dogs assisting the disabled – given the special functions performed by the dog with their mouth – but having a muzzle on site is recommended. Should a Visitor with a service dog find that their dog is reacting to excessive audio-visual stimuli in a way that is inconsistent with its training, or if the dog becomes overly sensitive, the Visitor is recommended to use a head collar or a muzzle. Visitors entering the Event with a service dog do so at their own risk. Should a service dog display behaviour at the Event inconsistent with its training, it may be prohibited from remaining at the Event.

II. RULES OF CONDUCT/

1./ Visitors are required to abide by general norms and in accordance with relevant legal regulations, the General Terms and Conditions and with the Visitor Policy. Visitors are required to refrain from all actions, statements or behaviour which endangers the life, health or physical well-being of others or which may violate others’ personal rights.

2./ Visitors acknowledge that Organizers, its Contracted Partners as authorised by Organizer, Contributors, and members of the press (in accordance with the stipulations of special agreements concluded with them), as well as other Visitors and other third parties, may produce sound and image recordings of the Event. Accordingly, all Visitors to the Event, by virtue of their participation at the Event, give express permission to the recording and publication of their image, likeness and actions. Visitors, however, may only be named in such recordings with their express permission. Those making recordings according to the above rules shall gain transferrable and exclusive usage rights that are unrestricted in time, geographical location and form of usage. Visitor allowed to make sound and image recordings only if the Organizers accept it with a written permission. Visitors may not sell, use for consideration or use for commercial purposes without consideration image and voice recordings that they have made, name Visitors featuring in such recordings without their consent or violate the personal rights of such Visitors. Organizers is expressly not liable in the event of other Visitors violating the above rules.
3. No business, commercial or advertising activity may be conducted at the Event without advance written authorisation from Organizers.

4. No alcoholic beverages may be served to minors under the age of eighteen and to intoxicated individuals by any vendor at the Event. The use of substances qualifying as banned drugs pursuant to the laws in effect is prohibited in the area of the Event and is punishable by law.

5. In order to ensure the safety of Visitors, the following activities are prohibited at the Event: body surfing, mosh pits, and walls of death. Visitors violating this policy will be removed by organisers to the perimeter of the particular venue; repeat violators will be removed from the Event area.

6. Given that the aim of the Event is to provide Visitors with civilised and undisturbed entertainment, demonstrations of any kind not related to events organised by Organizers, regardless of the number of participants, are prohibited. Organizers is entitled to end demonstrations that it has not expressly authorised without giving a reason. Organizers also reserves the right to end demonstrations that it has authorised pursuant to the above without giving a reason.

7. In the Event area, Organizers suitably qualified and authorised employees or associates will ensure enforcement of the rules of conduct and safety. Visitors expressly undertake, by virtue of their participation in the given Event, that they will fully cooperate with these associates within the bounds of the law and will follow their instructions in the event of an emergency.

III. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

1. Organizers may be held responsible exclusively for intentional breaches of contract caused by Organizers or for breaches of contract resulting in loss of life, physical well-being or health, and expressly excludes any liability beyond the statutory rights of the Visitor with regard to any other damage event. The price of the Ticket has been determined with consideration to the exclusions of liability set out above.
2./ At the event the Organizers operates cloakroom. Using the cloakroom Visitor accepts that he/she holds responsibility for the placed objects, for the losses Organizers may not be held responsible.

3./ Organizers is not required to cancel the Event if there is bad weather. Should authorities require Organizers to suspend or close the Event due to a force majeure, the Event or a component thereof will be cancelled.

4./ Organizers reserves the right to change the Event line-up.

5./ Visitors attending the Event with no wristband or with a wristband not entitling them to attend the Event at the particular time acknowledge and accept that, in addition to being held responsible for the violation, they must also pay the price of the wristband (or the appropriate differential). If not, by extraordinary termination initiated by Organizers, Visitors lose their right to attend the Event; in such cases, Visitors may present no claims or demands against Organizers.

6./ Items lost and found may be handed in the cloakroom, and visitors may inquire about lost items also there.